

JESABEL

A film by Hernán Jabes

SYNOPSIS

In today's Venezuela, a group of upper-class youths: Lolo, Cacá, Eli and Alain, live carefree amidst political and social chaos. Until one day, between drugs, games and love, Eli is brutally murdered. Sixteen years later, as Alain experiences a beautiful romance, the memories return only to reveal that Eli's alleged murderer is not who everyone believed. JEZABEL is a psychological thriller and the third film by Venezuelan director Hernán Jabes, who builds a utopian future just to show that evil remains.
